Janet Hislop Appointed President of Cayman National Bank Ltd.

GRAND CAYMAN, 1 FEBRUARY 2019 - - Cayman National Corporation Ltd. (CSX: CNC) KY (“CNC”) announced today that, pending regulatory approval, Janet A. Hislop has been appointed President of the CNC’s banking subsidiary, Cayman National Bank Ltd.

Ms. Hislop joins Cayman National from her 11 years as Chief Country Officer of Deutsche Bank (Cayman) Limited. As President of Cayman National Bank, her primary focus will be on overseeing the growth of Cayman National’s banking business in the Cayman Islands.

“We are pleased to welcome Janet to the Cayman National family”, said CNC CEO and Chairman of the Board of Cayman National Bank, Stuart Dack, “and it really feels like a home-coming since Janet continues the deep association established 45 years ago through her father, Benson, one of our founding shareholders and long-serving past Chairman.”

Familiar to many in the Cayman financial industry and community at large, West Bayer Janet Hislop brings decades of corporate and retail banking experience to Cayman National through senior positions with Barclays Bank, CIBC, and Deutsche Bank. She has also been active at a national level with the Cayman Islands Development Bank and the Cayman Islands Bankers’ Association.

“This is a truly exciting time for Cayman National,” stated Ms. Hislop, continuing, “I relish the challenge of helping to take the Bank into its new future. There is a significant opportunity to grow the banking business and I know, to make the most of it, I’ll be working closely with the best talent in the Cayman Islands.”

In addition to her banking experience, Ms Hislop joined the Cayman Islands Government in a civil service training role after completing higher education in Canada and the United Kingdom.
