Cayman National Supports Red Cross Month

Cayman National supports the efforts of the Cayman Islands Red Cross by their financial contribution to their activities in celebration of their 45 years anniversary.

According to Ms. Jondo Obi, Director of the Cayman Islands Branch of the British Red Cross, much of the fundraising efforts for the month were the focus of launching a youth program. “We are thankful to Cayman National for their generous support, which funds will go towards these efforts”, commented Ms. Obi.

“Cayman National is committed to providing support to local charities such as the Red Cross, and is delighted to make this donation in recognition of their 45 years of service to the local community” says Cayman National’s President and CEO, Stuart Dack. Mr. Dack congratulated the local Red Cross branch on reaching this milestone, and wished for them every success in the future.
