Cayman National launches New Product Offering

Cayman National's International Financial Services division hosted a golf tournament for Captive Insurance Managers at the Britannia Golf Course on Friday September 15th. The tournament was an opportunity for Cayman National to make its mark on Cayman's Captive industry by launching its new "Banking Solutions for Captives" product, which combines Banking, Investments and Letter of Credit.

"The captive insurance sector has grown tremendously over the past several years and we believe the industry will continue to grow. The new product, which includes a full range of financial services, offers a new alternative to meeting the financial needs of the captive industry," said Ian Phillips, President of International Financial Services.

For additional information contact Relationship Manager, Kim Remizowski, Senior Vice President, Business Development at kim.remizowski@cnifs.com or 815-5483.

A reception followed the tournament with Rob Leadbetter, William Dalziel and Jerome Steyn finishing in first place with a low net score of 65.4 while second place went to Nick Leighton, Tim Tovell and Kim Remizowski with a low net score of 66.6.
