New Executive Vice President for Cayman National

Cayman National Corporation recently appointed Mr. Ormond Williams as Executive Vice President of its subsidiary Cayman National Bank Ltd. As a leading international financial services group that offers world class products and services in banking, securities, insurance and trust services, Cayman National is extremely pleased to have Mr. Williams as part of its senior management team.

In his role as Executive Vice President, Mr. Williams will serve the Cayman National Group in providing strategic direction and leadership for the Personal / Retail Customer segment of the Bank, where he will ensure that the Bank achieves established business and financial goals. In addition to these responsibilities, he will manage a diverse range of activities including client satisfaction, sales effectiveness, human resources, technology, operational capability, risk management (credit administration and asset), product quality and distribution, network planning, regulatory requirements and publicity / marketing, as well as oversee commercial branches, the Customer Support Centre, and Personal Banking and Bank Operations Departments.

Commenting on his new position at Cayman National, Mr. Williams said, "Cayman National Bank has made significant strides in the financial services sector and it is a honour to work with such a progressive organisation. The Bank, along with its sister companies in the CNC Group, is strategically poised to make even greater inroads in the market, and I am delighted with the opportunity to engage my personal skills and years of banking experience to add value to the process that would witness the business realizing its full potential."

Mr. Williams is an experienced banker having worked with a major international bank over 21 years in St Vincent & the Grenadines, Barbados, Belize and the UK. He holds a certificate in Business Administration from the University of the West Indies (UWI) as well as a Certificate and Diploma in Banking from the Chartered Institute of Bankers, United Kingdom. He is also an Associate member of that Institute.

"Mr. Williams brings significant banking experience and a strong knowledge of the region to Cayman National Bank", commented Mr. David McConney, Cayman National Bank President. "His skills and experiences will complement and strengthen our existing management team and assist in the successful implementation of our customer centered business strategies. We feel confident that Mr. Williams will do well in his new role and we welcome him to the Cayman National Group."

Mr. Williams is national of St Vincent & the Grenadines and his wife, Rachel, is from Belize. He is a Lay Preacher of the Methodist Church in the Caribbean and Americas, and is a golf enthusiast.
