Cayman National Recruits Finance Manager

Recognised as a company that offers a full-range of financial services and products, Cayman National is extremely pleased to announce the appointment of Certified Public Accountant Mr. Leo Ebanks as Finance Manager of its corporate accounting department, effective March 3rd.

In his new role, Mr. Ebanks will be responsible for budgeting, consolidation of financial statements, management of accounting records, and scheduling for annual audit reporting for the Cayman National Group. He will report directly to the Group Financial Controller, Mrs. Patricia Estwick, and will assist with other projects related to the corporation's accounting operations. Commenting on his new partnership with Cayman National, Mr. Ebanks said, "Having recently been employed as Cayman National's Finance Manager, I look forward to working closely with members of the Cayman National Group to further strengthen the existing financial operations by overseeing the discipline and quality monitoring of public accounting at one of Cayman's premier financial institutions, Cayman National."

Mr. Ebanks holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Kentucky, and has been licensed as a Certified Public Accountant since 1998. Prior to joining Cayman National, he was employed by an international accounting firm for over 5 years as an Auditor. In his previous role, he conducted independent external audits, examined the operations of a number of financial companies (i.e. banks, insurance, investment management funds and pension fund companies), and gained invaluable experience overseas in his chosen field at the senior associate level.

"We are pleased to attract someone of Leo's caliber for this important position at Cayman National. His skills will complement and strengthen our existing accounting operations and will assist us in the successful implementation of financial strategies," said Mr. Eric Crutchley, President and Chief Executive of Cayman National Corporation. "We feel confident that Mr. Ebanks will do well in his new role and we welcome him to the Cayman National Group."

Mr. Ebanks, a citizen from North Side who plans to become more actively involved in the community, enjoys jogging, football, tennis and golf.
