Cayman National Supports Summer Reading Program

The annual Children's Summer Reading Program sponsored by the C.I. Public Library Service received support from Cayman National through monetary donations and staff volunteers. Children read about Claws, Paws, Scales and Tales and members of the Cayman National team volunteered of their time to read to the children.

According to Mrs. Mrs. Virginia Foster of the Library Services, Cayman National has continued to support the reading program throughout the years, and expressed her appreciation for their faithful support.
